

INVITATION TO LONDON

International Collaboration on Cultural Relevance in Global Health: A Call to Action (I_CAN)

8 April 2019

You are invited to the first International Conference by Careif. This conference aims to establish a platform for world experts to collaborate and create good quality research and training programmes to achieve evidence based and culturally adapted interventions that are culturally relevant and provide personalised care which can be owned by embedded care givers and receivers.

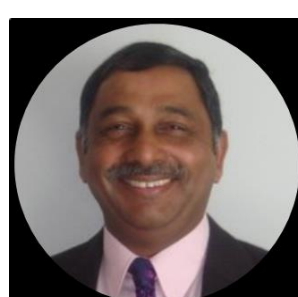

OUR SPEAKERS

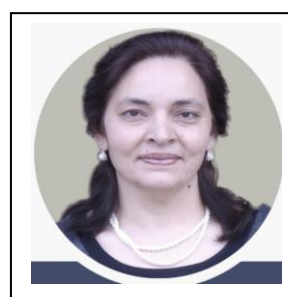

Professor
Dinesh Bhugra

Professor
Nusrat Hussain

Professor
Raghu Raghavan

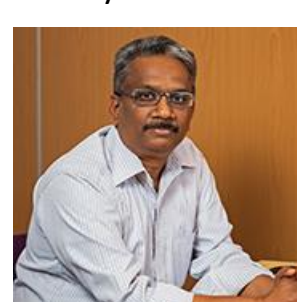

Professor
shanaya Rathod

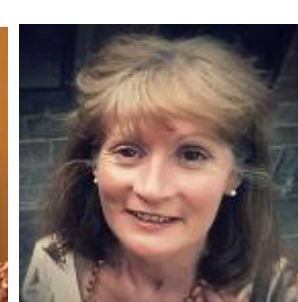

Professor
Muhammad Irfan

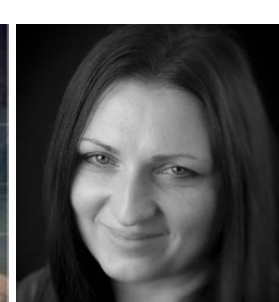

Professor
Farooq Naeem

Professor Saseendran
Pallikadavath

Professor
Rachel Tribe

Dr Aneta
Tunariu

Date: 8th of April 2019

Time: 09:30-16:30

Cost: £110.00 (£50.00 for students)

Venue: Room US.G.19/20 at University of East London, University Square,
Stratford Campus,
1 Salway Pl, London, E15 1NF

To submit an abstract for a poster or parallel session, please follow the link below and submit by 1st March 2019. <https://bit.ly/2SSqgnK>

This event is open to everyone within research, business, and voluntary sectors as well as to the public. You can find out more and register through our Eventbrite link here <https://bit.ly/2TVAHQa>

